

Country Support & Timing

At AamoBee, we're committed to providing timely and effective support to our users. Since we are currently operating in India and the United Arab Emirates (UAE), our customer support services are aligned with the business hours, weekends, and national holidays of these countries.

Here's everything you need to know about how our support system works and how you can reach us when you need assistance.

1. Launch Regions: India and UAE

AamoBee is currently launched and actively supported in:

- India
- United Arab Emirates (UAE)

Businesses in these regions will receive complete access to platform features, onboarding support, billing options, and localized assistance based on their operational needs.

We are continuously working on expanding support to additional countries in future phases.

2. Support Availability by Country

India

- Support Hours: Monday to Saturday, 10:00 AM to 6:00 PM (IST)
- Weekly Off: Sunday
- Public Holidays: Indian national and regional holidays (notifications may be provided in advance)

United Arab Emirates (UAE)

- Support Hours: Monday to Friday, 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM (GST)
- Weekly Off: Saturday and Sunday
- Public Holidays: UAE national holidays (based on the official calendar)

We ensure that each region's support staff is familiar with local business practices, taxation systems (like GST or VAT), and time zones to provide accurate and relevant assistance.

3. Modes of Support

We offer multiple channels for reaching our support team, ensuring you can get help in the most convenient way:

a) Direct WhatsApp Support

- Fast and personal assistance for urgent queries
- Available during working hours in both countries
- Useful for common issues, account setup help, or real-time guidance

b) Email Support

- For detailed queries, payment issues, technical support, or documentation-related help
- Contact: support@aamobee.com or paymenthelp@aamobee.com

c) In-Platform Help

- Integrated support via your AamoBee dashboard
 - Access to FAQs, guides, and help articles

4. Response Time

We aim to respond to all support requests as quickly as possible:

- WhatsApp support: Typically within 30 minutes to 2 hours (during working hours)
- Email support: Within 6 to 12 working hours (excluding weekends and holidays)

For urgent issues, WhatsApp is the fastest way to reach our team.

5. Language Support

Currently, we provide support in the following languages:

- English (default)
- Hindi (for Indian users)
- Basic Arabic communication (for UAE users; expanding soon)

If you have specific language needs, we recommend using email for translation-friendly support.

6. Future Support Expansion

As AamoBee grows globally, we are working to expand localized support for additional countries and regions. This includes:

- Regional payment gateway integrations
 - Tax compliance features per country
 - Multi-lingual support teams
 - Country-specific business hours and help centers
